News of the Day.

Military Summary.

By General Order No. 21, issued from the Adjutant General's office yesterday, the State of Kentucky is constituted a Department, and Major General J. M. Palmer assigned to its command. The Department remains in Sherman's Military Division; but during his absence Gen. Palmer will report to Gen. Thomas, commanding the Department of the Cumberland. It will be seen that the order does not necessarily relieve Gen. Burbridge. It is understood that this plan has been adopted as a compromise, and that no encumbrance is intended.

General Herron's report on corruptions in the Department of Arkansas is overwhelmingly startling. Although General Steele is nominally exonerated, the reader will not fail to inquire what an officer is worth under whom such a state of affairs can exist.

Gen. Blair's chief of artillery reports that Sherman's plans are not generally known among his troops, but they follow him with enthusiastic confidence. Sherman's advance has reached Florence, on the Chattahoochee and Northeastern railroad. All rail and telegraphic communication with Charleston is severed.

Howard's brace boys waded through forty miles of swamps to the Salkahatchie river, easily driving harder. The 15th corps charged across the river, through five feet of water, and captured the guns that opposed the passage. Blair's loss is one hundred and fifty.

It seems they do have "tories" in Alabama. A party recently rode through Jasper, taking the courthouse to burn them selves by the way. Davis' men took to his kingdom.

Kirby Smith's contraband trade with Matamoras flourishes exceedingly. He is getting supplies of all kinds over the Rio Grande. Pap Price has been resurrected, and sent by Smith on a confidential mission to Mexico.

The house in which John C. Calhoun was born has been accidentally burned. The house which he built is getting purposely burned.

The town of Gillsville, Ga., has been destroyed, in retaliation for the murder of colored soldiers by the rebels.

Small bands of guerrillas are infesting the suburbs of Clarksville and Nashville. They captured a number of Government employees yesterday on the Murfreesboro Pike.

The Winona has been seized for alleged illegal trading on the Mississippi.

News Summary.

The House of Representatives yesterday made a unanimous progress bill, and passed the bill establishing state communications with Japan and China; and also the bill to muster our men who enlisted for unexpired terms in old regiments. The one, an act of justice, the other, of far-reaching public interest.

In the Senate, Wilson introduced a bill to increase the efficiency of the general staff. This bill, if passed, will be to compensate the Colored Troops for supplies of re-captured Africans. Senator Wade offered an amendment to the appropriation bill, providing for a Board of Admiralty.

By the arrival of the Europe at Halifax, we have one day's later advices from Liverpool.

Oldman Smith is doing yeoman's service in England for the National cause. He wields his pen with vigorous earnestness that tells.

The rebel organ in London gravely announces that England is going to release Canada before the end of our war, so that she may not have to fight us for seizing it!

Italy has narrowly escaped a ministerial crisis. Victor Emmanuel was enthusiastically received at Florence on his last visit.

The attempt to manufacture paper from corn-husks is approaching a satisfactory stage. The price will cost the press severely thousand dollars in gold. If the print proves good the money will be quickly raised.

We intended to say yesterday morning that stocks have an upward tendency abroad owing to the continued decline of gold. Doubtless our readers noted the omission.

The foreign demand for five-twenty is rapidly increasing, and American securities have a decided upward tendency.

Gold weak at 205 and 205 1/2. The sales of seven-twenties were over four and a quarter millions.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—To-night will be the last of the unusually long and very successful engagement of the Florentines at the Louisville, when they will be the recipients of a farewell benefit. A great bill is announced, Mr. Florene will appear as Handly Andy, in the fine comic drama of that name; and Mrs. Florene will personate six different characters, with songs and dances, in the protean farce of "A Lesson to Husbands."

LAURE'S GREAT WAR SHOW.—The exhibition at the Masonic Temple attracted another large audience last night. The opportunity of witnessing this wonderful exhibition will be afforded but two nights more, and we advise all to go and see it before it leaves. It will amply repay the expense. Mr. La Rue, for the accommodation of children and ladies who cannot attend at night, will give an exhibition on Saturday afternoon.

Caroline Miller, who yesterday had a preliminary examination before Judge Johnson, charged with poisoning her father, Philip Miller, and was remanded to jail to answer for murder, is only about fifteen years of age. It is almost incredible that a person at that age could conceive and deliberately carry out the purpose of murder.

Loyalty in Savannah.

We are not prone to be over credulous respecting the existence of a real, intelligent, and hearty Union sentiment in conquered rebel districts. We see too much of the sham article of Unionism in our midst, to be easily "caught with mondy corn." And we can see no justification either in conscience, reason, or policy for refusing to look at, or frankly to state the fact that the traitor disease is a fearfully inveterate one and requires an enormous amount of killing before it can be removed. The ghostly and radical perversion of Southern character under the two-fold influence of slavery and State sovereignty, has not only well nigh obliterated all sense of nationality, but has planted in its stead a venomous and insane hatred of the North, which we do not expect will wholly subside in this generation. But its manifestation in the way of formidable hostility to the Government will end, beyond a peradventure, within a comparatively short period. We copy an extract from a private letter dated at Savannah, January 30th, from the New York Evening Post. The writer, after depicting the false impressions of the loyalty of Savannah which have gained ground at the North, continues as follows:

"I do not believe there are twenty respectable whites in the whole city who are ready to take up arms against the rebels. The people would turn all their thoughts to-morrow. I saw to-day the man who kept the club-house where the first men of the place assembled every night, and he gave me some account of their bitter hatred of the North. Mr. Arnold, who figures so much in the meetings held here, was the president of this club. These men upheld, as long as they could, the military authorities of the rebellion. When, within two months, a large number of Union prisoners were here, they would not permit the blacks and a few of the middling classes to have food sent to them, saying stores and fixtures of them perished with cold and hunger from Friday night to Sunday morning.

The ministers here will not pray for the President, except the black clergymen. These pray heartily for him and the government. The members of the Presbyterian church yesterday I know thus: For all Presidents, that their minds might be illuminated to see the right and follow it and eschew the wrong, which was just as much for Jeff. Davis as for Lincoln. The Episcopal ministers omit the prayer for the President entirely, and these people were loyal, they might not stand such prayers, and the ministers who are pleased with such supplications."

Per contra, we take from yesterday's dispatches the following:

THE DAILY PRESS

AN IMPORTANT ARREST.—The Evansville Journal of Wednesday says that Lieut. Frank Hibler, formerly of John Morgan's staff, was arrested in that city on Monday, and is now safely lodged in the guardhouse. The charge against him is that of being a spy.

He was captured with Morgan in Ohio and escaped with him from the penitentiary at Columbus.

He was armed with a forged oath of amnesty, and a number of choice scraps clipped from Democratic papers, together with a considerable quantity of gold and green backs. He bore it stoutly until Uncle Sam's bracelet was slipped on to his wrists, when he exclaimed, "My, God, man I caught at last!" and came down gracefully. He is a fine looking man, over six feet high, and sharp as a steel trap. The evidence against him is, we learn, almost indubitable.

GUERRILLAS ON THE LEBANON BRANCH.—Yesterday, about noon, eighteen guerrillas, under a leader named Merriman, entered the town of New Haven, on the Lebanon Branch Railroad, and at once began their work of robbery and outrage. They entered and pillaged nearly every house in the place. They broke open with axes they had picked up, trunks, bureaus and wardrobes, without demanding the keys, and took whatever of value they found, and wantonly smashed and destroyed a great deal of furniture. They robbed citizens of their pocket books, watches, and anything else about their person they fancied. They went to the house of Mr. Hoskins, who is connected with the Lebanon Branch road, and robbed it of what money they could find, and a great many articles of value—among other things, Mrs. Hoskins' rings. The robbers left in the direction of Bardstown, upon the appearance of the train from Leb anon.

POLICE COURT.—Thursday, Feb. 16.—John Miller, arrested as a suspicious character, held in $200 for three months. N. S. Lucy, drunkenness; fined $5. Henry Long, having in his possession counterfeit money, knowing the same to be bogus, discharged. Mary Hurley, drunkenness; discharged. Michael Dolan, charged with stabbing Michael Riley; continued till Saturday. James O'Connell, attempted rape on Elizabeth O'Byer; discharged. He was held in $200 to answer for an assault. James Wright, killing George W. Moore; discharged. Henry Crawford, a slave, stealing fish; master held in $100 to answer for the vagrancy of his slave. James Gillen, stealing three cows from Charles Moore; continued till this morning.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT AND KILLED.—A colored man named James Morden was accidentally shot and killed yesterday morning at Hawkins & Thornton's spice mill, on Bullitt street, between Main and Water, by another colored man named Wm. T. Lewis. It seems the two had been sporting together. Lewis drew a pistol, and while holding it the pistol was discharged, the ball entering the left side of Morden's neck, breaking the neck bone, and causing his death in a very short time. Lewis went to the jail and gave himself up at once. An inquest was held on the body, and a verdict rendered in accordance with what is above stated.

VOLUNTEERING.—Forty-one men were enlisted yesterday, to be credited on the quota of the city. There is no doubt the city will be able to fill its quota in a short time, if a proper effort be made. Let all who are liable to draft come forward and subscribe to the general fund. By doing this a sufficient sum will be raised to fill the quota of the city, and in case there should be a draft the $25 will be sufficient to entitle each person drafted, who has paid in that amount to this general fund, to $200.

COMPENSATORY BENEFIT.—A compensatory benefit has been tendered Miss Dora Shaw by a number of her numerous admirers in this city, and will take place at the Louisville Theater Saturday night. "Camilie," a character in which she has no rivals, has been announced for the occasion.

ACCIDENT.—On last Tuesday one of the servant girls employed in the Sewance House, Nashville, while leaning out of a window in the third story, lost her balance and fell to the pavement. Strange to say, no limbs were broken, and she sustained only a slight injury.

AMNESTY OATH.—The amnesty oath was administered to two rebel deserters yesterday. Their names were, John Vaughn, from Webster county, Co. F, 11th Ky.; and Samuel T. Wells, Jefferson county, from Dick Blodgett's command. They gave themselves up.

Two men, Pat O'Malley and W. H. Murphy, charged with having been guerrillas, were sent from this city yesterday to Captain Vance, Provost Marshal at Lexington, to be tried by court-martial at that place.

Mr. John Overton, the Tennessee millionaire, who is in jail, gave five millions of dollars to aid the rebellion, has deserted the cause, taken the oath, and is once more a peaceable citizen of Nashville.

DISCHARGED.—James Wright, who was arrested charged with killing George W. Moore, near the water works above the city, had a hearing before Judge Johnson yesterday, and was discharged.

John N. Smith, Crittenden county, and John Rice, Campbell county, Ga., rebel deserters, took the oath yesterday, and were sent north of the river to rejoin during the continuance of the war.

A new regiment of Illinois troops arrived in the city yesterday morning and left for Nashville. It numbered 300 men, and is as fine a looking regiment as we have seen.

PRISONERS OF WAR.—One hundred and twenty-nine rebel prisoners of war, including twelve commissioned officers, will be forwarded to day from Military Prison to Camp Chase.

Mr. Wm. Pliford, mail agent on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, has our thanks for favors.

John W. Tharp, 2d Kentucky Cavalry, was arrested in this city yesterday as a deserter.

Cave Hill Cemetery.—Louisville, Ky., Feb. 11, 1863. Persons having relations in the public vault of Cave Hill Cemetery are requested to remove the remains, as the present vault is to be taken down and replaced by another structure.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—The Herald's Fort Fisher correspondent says: General Terry and Admiral Porter had again disturbed the repose of the rebels, who are defending the city of Wilmington, for the purpose of making a reconnaissance in force last Saturday morning.

The national troops were formed in line of battle above Fort Fisher, stretching across the peninsula from the ocean to Cape Fear river. Gen. Anderson, with Gen. Payne's division on the right and Gen. Price's division on the left. A simultaneous advance was made on the two wings and the rebels were driven from their lines and into their main works, and were forced to yield a few miles of ground in the direction of Wilmington, where Terry's men held at night. They also lost about one hundred prisoners.

The total casualties on the Union side were only sixty or seventy.

Admiral Porter co-operated with his fleet, both on the river and the ocean, his gunboats moving up Cape Fear in advance of the troops and subjecting the rebel Ft. Anderson to a most violent shelling, which was very promptly responded to.

The Governor of South Carolina has issued a frantic appeal to the people, and notified all able to bear arms, that they must at once join the military service or leave the State. The latter alternative, he will probably take general, there shall not have the privilege of embarking. Even foreigners are not to be exempted.

The Savannah correspondent says: Notwithstanding the rebel denial to the contrary, the Union's strength through Georgia is very strong. Major Gen. Harlan, who is in charge of the department, which resolutions in favor of closing the war and returning to the Union were adopted, and these are said to express the almost unanimous feeling of the people of the southwestern as well as other parts of the State.

At Augusta and Pulaski peace meetings were held on Monday evening, and the legislature was in session in extra session yesterday, and strong efforts will be made with good hope of success to have it authorize the calling of a convention for the purpose of effecting the restoration of the State to the Union. Governor Brown is believed to be fully in accord with the movers in this project.

The small-pox had broken out and was very bad among the negroes in and about Savannah.

The Herald's New Orleans correspondent says the reported order to evacuate Mobile has been withdrawn on account of the arrival of General Butler, who has assumed command of the department.

The small-pox is at Portland, and the Maury commands it to remove stores, etc., to Seaford on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday at 5 P.M.

NOTICE.

DEPARTURES.

Gen. Lyon, Cincinnati; A. Dean, Cincinnati;
Silver Cloud No. 2, Chuchan.

THE RIVER WAS steadily falling yesterday with 6 feet water in the canal in the evening by the mark. During the previous 24 hours the river at the head of the falls had fallen 4 inches and 12 inches at Portland. The weather is mild, the thermometer being up to 50° in the evening, and it was clear at night, though cloudy in the morning with a sprinkle or two of rain.

The groundhog, or woodchuck, has been out, frisking about, ever since the 21st, though the weather was rather too hard for him for a few days, but, having abandoned his winter quarters for the season, he has to take it coolly, almost as coolly as the city contemplates taking out notices of the "groundhog day" and appropriates it as its own.

The indications favor an early spring and a favorable season for the fruit crops, as the long-continued hard winter weather has kept the early fruits from budding too early. There is not much danger now that the late frosts will have the chance to nip the buds.

On the falls last evening there were 4 feet water in the chute of the Indian pass for descending boats.

The river at Cincinnati yesterday had fallen 6 inches, and at Pittsburgh a general tide had set in, and a full resumption of navigation was expected in that quarter. No boats have left Pittsburgh for lower ports for over a month, we believe, and the boatmen up there must have suffered terribly with the "blues." Some 6 or 8 boats have been advised to wait for a quarter for something, well laden, and awaiting the disappearance of the ice.

The flourishing city of Evansville appears to be doing an active business in the forwarding of produce and forge. The L. M. Kennett, and the D. B. Campbell were loading there with forage for Nashville yesterday. It was purchased from dealers here.

The Countess for Cairo, and the Dunker for Green river, ply regularly to Evansville.

The tow boat Lioness left Evansville Tuesday with a large number of barges in tow for this port.
